

Junior Conservatory of the Arts
KING'S STRINGS (4-5TH GRADE)

MR. PATRICK CLIFFORD

PCLIFFORD@TKA.NET

Junior Conservatory Strings is for the fourth and fifth grade student interested in learning how to play string instruments. Students learn fundamental performance skills. Students also study basic musical notation and its practical application. Students study and perform Florida Orchestra Association (FOA) graded solos as well as ensemble pieces. All students perform during the second semester. Private study is strongly encouraged. Purchase of concert attire required.

TEXTBOOKS

None required. Music will be selected from the standard chamber music literature and distributed by instructor. Students are required to have music binder each day in class with material that will be provided. Binders should be kept orderly and there will be random binder checks.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objective of this course will be to develop technical proficiency along with musical skills including independence of each part, awareness and sensitivity to the other instrumental parts, accurate intonation, and a sense of unity within the group of players. The ensemble will perform in public.

REQUIREMENTS OF THE COURSE

1. Successful completion of exams and quizzes
2. Successful progress on the selected musical work(s) resulting in a public performance
3. Public performances as outlined in the Kings Academy performance calendar
4. Attendance at all rehearsals, performances, and other required dates
5. Purchased or rented instrument
6. Purchase of performance attire

LEARNING OUTCOMES

A student that successfully completes the course will demonstrate suitable abilities to:

1. Identify and discriminate among rhythmic structures: beat, meter, pattern, and polyrhythms;
2. Identify and discriminate among standard music forms: binary, ternary, fugue, rondo, sonata, suite, concerto, symphony, and theme and variation
3. Identify qualities of music performance: characteristic tone quality of instruments, phrasing, blend, balance, timbre, tempo, dynamics, articulation, and intonation, both linear and vertical
4. Identify, discriminate among, and describe stylistic features, principal forms, and contributions of representative composers of the traditional stylistic eras of Western music
5. Analyze and correct music performance problems (e.g., intonation, phrasing, blend, balance, tone quality, and notational-performance discrepancies)
6. Make critical judgments about aesthetic qualities of music performances
7. Analyze and correct problems of instrumental tone productions

EVALUATION/MEASURES OF OUTCOMES

Grades will be determined on attendance, attitude, individual progress, and performance. Please refer to Student Handbook for attendance policy. The grading rubric is as follows:

Attendance and binder – 10%

Attitude – 10%

Individual Progress – 70%

Performance – 10%
